about the Sydney Contemporary Orchestra (SCO)

The SCO is one of the most dynamic professional symphony orchestras in Sydney. Led by its founding conductor Dr Brian Chatpo Koo the orchestra is dedicated and committed to explore and promote contemporary composers and their works.

Our success and reputation from local & international composers is ever growing, we have received numerous emails congratulating the SCO on this venture, and promoting contemporary music of our times.

Works of high artistic merit and quality, worthy of performance need a stage. It is our vision to schedule regular concerts to give these composers an opportunity.

The SCO is registered as a non-profit Charity organisation by the Australian Charities and Not-for profits Commission. The Sydney Contemporary Orchestra Inc., and The SCO Foundation is listed on the Register of Cultural Organisations under Subdivision 30-BA of the Income Tax Assessment Act 1997.

the SCO's vision is to create a musical legacy for our times.

mission statement

the Sydney Contemporary Orchestra promotes new music by today's composers from Australia and around the world:

- we are committed to supporting and promoting today's generation of contemporary composers
- we enrich the cultural life of Sydney:
- we introduce Sydney audiences to new music by today's contemporary composers
- we promote Sydney as a leading cultural centre for contemporary music
- we provide our musicians with specialised training and direction in the performance of new contemporary music – focusing on orchestral works
- we educate our audiences by inviting composers to speak to the audiences during our concerts, providing insights into their compositions and the creative process
